Justice^{At Work}[™]

Barrett & Farahany is an award-winning employment law firm dedicated exclusively to employee rights, and is the oldest and largest in the Southeast. Headquartered in Atlanta, with offices in Chicago, IL and Birmingham, AL, the firm handles cases across 10 states and the District of Columbia, including Colorado, Ohio, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Tennessee and New York. Unlike other firms, if you have an employment situation, you will speak with an attorney.

The Board of the National Employment Lawyers Association (NELA) appointed Amanda Farahany to a three-year term! NELA has been working to empower workers' rights attorneys across the country to help level the playing for workers for years.

THE NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT LAW ASSOCIATION APPOINTED AMANDA FARAHANY TO A 3 YEAR TERM.

Our actions and decisions today will shape the way we will be living in the future.

Here to Help Employment Law Attorneys Help Workers Across the United States

As a member of the Board, Amanda Farahany can offer her insights and her voice on matters regarding how NELA can better help all employment law attorneys.

This includes matters of legal training for new and experienced attorneys alike, promoting a fair judiciary system that serves everyone, and advocating for laws and policies that protect workers from the system that would abuse them.

Amanda Farahany and Barrett & Farahany have already been loud and public advocates for workers in the past, and now she can help even more across the country with the experience and knowledge she brings to this nationwide organization.
