WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT HUMAN RESOURCES

Human resources, or HR, is a department within mid-to-large-sized businesses. People who work in HR typically deal with employee-focused issues and tasks, such as hiring, administration, and training.

“Human resources is not your friend.” This has become a common adage in employment law, and it’s important to know why people feel this way about human resources.

Since HR deals with employee-focused issues, issues like workplace discrimination fall under HR’s administrative duties. The workplace discrimination attorneys at Barrett & Farahany can explain everything you need to know about HR departments.

WHAT IS THE GOAL OF HUMAN RESOURCES?

As an employee, you are told to go to the human resources department if there is a problem. This has convinced many people that HR departments will do their best to respond to the issue so it doesn’t happen again...
