NOW ACCEPTING REFERRALS IN NORTH CAROLINA

I am writing to announce that I am now formally accepting referrals for whistleblower cases throughout North Carolina. At Barrett & Farahany, our mission has always been to champion the rights of individuals, and I am dedicated to extending our firm's experience to protect those who courageously expose wrongdoing.

Handling whistleblower claims requires an understanding of complex federal and state laws, including the False Claims Act, Dodd-Frank Act, and other anti-retaliation statutes. My focus is on providing sophisticated, strategic representation to ensure whistleblowers are not only protected from retaliation but are also positioned to secure the rewards they may be entitled to.

When you refer a whistleblower case to me, you can be confident that your client will receive dedicated counsel from a practitioner who understands the high stakes involved. We honor all referral fee agreements and are committed to building collaborative relationships with our fellow attorneys to achieve the best possible outcomes for these brave individuals.

If you have a potential whistleblower matter or would like to discuss a case, please do not hesitate to reach out. I look forward to the possibility of working together to uphold justice.

Sincerely,

Katie Abernethy
